~~Manag. Anjali Darrang was She was taken to the IGB Institute of Mental Health at Tezpur for treatment. After discharge, she was placed at Roshmi. Anjali, who hails from an interior village of Darrang district, had lost both her parents at a very young age and was under the custody of her uncle. Her uncle was rescued from the streets of Guwahati by the Police, when she wandered~~

~~at Roshmi. Counseling skills trained Anjali to attend She at Ashadeep's with her Uncle in the village, helping him in the paddy fields. Her Uncle who has~~

was finding it impossible to tackle her very volatile expressions, and even her parents did not respond to his pleas for help. And on one day, he came home and found that Mamoni had disappeared.

Mamoni was brought to 'Navachetana' by the Police who found her loitering in a market area. Finding the husband was not an easy task for our workers, but he was traced within a month or so. Initially the task for our worresponding very well to our counseling, but gradually with the improvement of Mamoni's condition, he started to become more receptive to the needs of his wife.

Mamoni could go back to her task forafter a period of nearly four months. But today, they are a very happy couple, with Mamoni expecting her first child within
